Found Among Roots of an Old Tree.

Peculiar Conduct of Dog Explained—
News From Lake.

(Special Correspondence.)
Lake, April 4.—Henry Lauby of Green, has purchased a fine organ and will make preparations to give music lessons next winter.

Yost Yancy is clearing up the Richard's swamp preparatory to celery raising on a large scale. In pulling over a tamarack tree he is said to have discovered several Indian arrow heads among its roots.

The Woods Cemetery association has received $1,000 from the Woods estate.

John H. Richards is erecting a hotel at Beach City.

Will Rober, the proprietor of the saw mill has finished a large contract for John Werstler.

Sam Hoover may now be found at Steece Corner, Uniontown. Yost Yancy occupies Sam's former house.

George Arbogast may also be found at Uniontown at the Peiffer place.

The Frith property near Lake Center is vacant.

Corla Welty has returned to her home in Green. She is not in the best of health.

Otto Laube was kicked by a calf. His nose was smashed and both eyes injured.

Billie Reifensider, Uniontown's harness maker, is ill.

As a young man was going through the woods of Mr. Krumroy in Green township, he was met by a beagle dog which disputed his further advance. Arming himself with a club he drove the dog away, and then found three pretty little puppies curled up in a brush pile. When the mother saw that the man was not inclined to injure her offspring, she came wagging her tail, and seemed very much pleased. No one knows who owns the property.

Eczeema, scald head, hives, itchiness of the skin of any sort, instantly relieved, permanently cured. Doan's ointment. At any drug store.

MUSIC

Has Been Success In Schools at Coventry.

The Coventry Township Board of Education at the beginning of this school year decided to give music a trial. Mr. F. P. Stine was employed as musical director for a term of four months. At the expiration of that

SULTAN

Has His Troubles

Buying Bonnets For 300
Wives.

Akron Soldier Visits the Home

Of Hadji Mohamad Womolol
Kiram.

Tells How the Natives Buy Their Wives.

To the Democrat:

With flowers in bloom, trees and shrubs all dressed in green, gay plumaged birds twittering and monkeys leaping from tree to tree, is surely a paradise and such is the beautiful Island of Jolo, one of the most southern of the Philippine archipelago. In area it is rather small, being only 12 miles wide and 37 miles long, but is the largest of the Sulu group. Its climate is delightful and healthful and unlike the northern islands, has no rainy season. It seldom rains at all and when it does, 15 minutes after, there is not a trace of rain left, the sun drying it up so quickly.

The natives (Moros) are followers of Mohammed and are ruled over by a Sultan, Hadji Mohamad Womolol Kiram, who is also ruler of all Moros in the islands, with his seat of government on this island, (Jolo). The Moro nation is divided into tribes, each tribe being ruled by a chief or Dato, who occasionally clash arms with each other. Their weapons consist either of a Bolo, Barong, or spear, and occasionally a warrior is seen with an antiquated Remington rifle. The Bolo resembles a machete, but is far more artistic, some of them having handles of solid ivory, inlaid with gold and silver and valued from $25 to $50 each. The Barong is a crescent shaped knife, sharp on the inner and outer edges, and placed on the end of a long pole or handle, making a wicked looking instrument and is used in decapitating an antagonist, providing, of course, the chance offers itself.

The Sultan was in town a few days ago, and had his warriors give exhibitions of skill with their implements of war, but unfortunately, I did not get a chance to see it. Judging from those who witnessed it they can put up a good hand-to-hand encounter. This is the same Sultan, who, through the diplomacy of General Bates, agreed to accept the protection of the United States, and offered to use his force of warriors to fight against the Filipinos in the Island of Mindanao, directly north of here, and at present the station of the 31st U. S. V. Infantry that was recruited at Fort Thomas, Ky. Needless to say his services were declined with thanks. From the U. S. government he receives a yearly allowance of $2400 Mex. ($1200 of U. S. money) to keep the peace and to give a little dignity to his position. You may wonder what a savage would do with so much money, but when you think of the "Spring bonnets" and other paraphernalia he has to provide for his harem of 300 wives, his allowance seems rather small.

When a native or any one else, for that matter, wants a wife, he buys her outright, and no money back if she don't suit. A wife in this country ranges in price from $100 to $400 Mexican—that's the latest market quotations.

Here is an incident that occurred not long ago: A Chino bought himself a wife, paying $150 for her, and as he thought, had a perfect right to abuse his newly bought bride. When papa heard of this, he came and took his little girl back home, refunding Mr. Chino $50, keeping the change for his trouble. In addition to this the Chino had to pay a fine in the military court for wife-beating.

Nearly all inhabitants of the orient are slaves to the tobacco habit in the way of smoking. Men, women and children all use cigarettes, pipe smoking seldom being indulged in except by the Chinese or Chinos as they are called here. It is a common sight to see the native women, with a cigarette stuck in each ear, (which are pierced for that purpose) walking along, with two or three pikanunies following and each one smoking a cigarette.

The chief beast of burden is the water buffalo, who, with a great deal of urging, can make the extraordinary speed of one mile an hour.

The island has a few wild horses of the pony type, but they are not used as beasts of burden, except for saddle purposes and then a whole family will mount the back of one small pony. A few of them have been purchased by the government for cavalry use in the island of Luzon. A week ago the transport Port Stephen stopped at this place and left five mules and one wagon for government use. It is the first mule or wagon that has ever been landed on this island and the natives say it is "mucha granda" meaning it is very grand, and discounts their way of transporting things.

CLEVELANDERS

Trying to Buy Old High School Property.

Hill Will be Graded and Property
Greatly Improved.

It is stated that Cleveland parties have been negotiating for the purchase of the old High school property, corner Summit and Mill sts., owned by E. F. Pfeuger.

No information of a definite character could be learned. Mr. Pfeuger has not yet taken any steps toward the closing of the deal, and it is understood that several parties would like to make purchase.

Just what move is to be made is in the dark. It is known that the intention of one of the parties is to grade the hill, and put the lot in fine shape.

DOUBLE TRACK.

Erie Train 4 Made Use of It
Wednesday.

The double track on the Erie railroad between Tallmadge and Kent has been completed, and is now in active operation.

The first train to pass over the new improvement was train 4, which left Akron, at 12:50 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The double track extends  $\frac{3}{4}$  miles, and has an absolutely solid base, in the shape of four feet of slag in the road bed.

At The Grand.

A really up-to-date comedy is the Rays' "Hot Old Time" which will be the attraction at the Grand tonight.

The fun in this musical comedy is fast and furious, and a laugh a minute is guaranteed. Just one of those places every theater-goer likes. No tears, all laughs, full of surprise, good music and high class specialties. There are also many pretty girls in handsome costumes; in fact, taking it all in all, it is a "live" one. The management has engaged for this season's tour a most excellent company of artists, including Dan Gracey, the rajah of Irish comedians; J. Clayton Frye, Flora Evans, Ada B. Burnett, three Fanchonetti Sisters, Frank Wesson, Lottie Walters, Jack Darlington, Elinor Blanchard and Frank Morrell.

The musical portion of the program is under the direction of the well-known conductor and producer, Robert Cone.

AMER

Surprised Councilmen

Last Night by Tendering Resignation.

H. B. Camp Makes an Offer to This City.

Will Conduit East Market Street
at Own Expense

And Then Sell to This City—Council Proceedings.

Members of the City Council were greatly surprised at the meeting Tuesday night, when the resignation of L. H. Amer, of the Fourth ward, was read. Mr. Amer did not state his reason for resigning.

Mr. Carlton presented a motion for the acceptance of Mr. Amer's resignation, and it was seconded by Mr. Brodt. The motion was carried.

"In presenting this motion," Mr. Carlton said: "I do so with regret, and I feel assured that this regret is shared by all members of the body."

Inasmuch as Tuesday evening's was practically the last meeting that the present organized body will hold, it made much deeper the sense of regret when it was realized that all the old members could not be together at the last meeting.

When Mr. Amer was spoken to by the reporters, relative to his reason for resigning, he said: "It's not for publication."

GOOD OFFER TO CITY.

Mr. Paul reported to the Council a magnanimous offer made to this city by Mr. H. B. Camp. He said that Mr. Camp had volunteered to put conduits for wires along either side of East Market st., to do the work at his own expense and then sell the conduits to this city, the municipality to be given a number of years in which to pay for the same. This offer on the part of Mr. Camp is made because he is desirous of ridding East Market st. of the unsightly rows of telegraph and telephone poles. Mr. Paul presented a motion that steps be taken to accept Mr. Camp's offer. Carried.

MEET EVERY TWO WEEKS.

A motion was presented by Mr. Paul that the incoming Council change the ordinance relating to the holding of meetings so that the body will be obliged to meet but once during every two weeks. If anything special must be acted on, committee meetings may be called on alternate evenings with that on which the regular meetings are held. Adjournment was had to April 10, at 8:45 p.m. The new Council will be organized on that evening.

"BOUND FOR COLUMBUS."

Council wanted to know how the legislation for the widening of Gale st. was progressing. None of the City Commissioners were present at the meeting, and when inquiry was made about them, Mr. Homan said: "I noticed by tonight's (Tuesday's) Democrat that they were bound for Columbus."

TO VACATE PLEASANT ST.

Upon motion made by Mr. Flebeger, the petition of the India Rubber company for the vacating of Pleasant st., in the vicinity of the company's plant, was referred to the City Solicitor. Mr. Carlton is of the opinion that the company should do something in return should this city vacate a portion of the street. "It should give us right-of-way across the canal, and extending to Bowery st. The company ought to do that, and, perhaps, more," concluded Mr. Carlton.

NEW COUNCILMEN PRESENT.

Councilmen-elect August Piske, of the Fourth ward, and Alf. Koons, of the Third ward, were present, and were extended the courtesy of seats "inside the railing."

WEAK STONEWALL.

A claim in the payroll, for Hovey & Botzum, attracted Mr. Flebeger's attention. "What's this for?" he inquired. "For driving piles at the Cook st. bridge," replied City Civil Engineer Payne.

"Yes," added Mr. Brown, "piles had to be driven around the wall of the bridge to keep it from falling down."

CITY CLERK'S REPORT.

City Clerk Isbell announced to the Council that his annual report was prepared, and would be printed in a few days.
